UN May Invite Asians For Talk

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diplomats predicted today the U.N. Security Council would invite both North and South Viet Nam to take part in debate on North Vietnamese attacks on American warships and U.S. retaliation.

Council President Sivert A. Nielsen of Norway suspended debate so he could sound out delegates to the 11-nation body on the proposal to hear representatives of the two Vietnamese governments. Nielsen said he believed he could convene the council again Friday to report results.

If the Communist North and pro-Western South both send spokesmen, it will probably produce a heated debate on the roles the United States, North Viet Nam and Red China play in South Viet Nam's war.

The debate opened Wednesday at the request of the United States, which asked for an urgent council meeting to consider "the serious situation created by deliberate attacks of the Hanoi (North Viet Nam) regime on United States naval vessels in international waters."

The question of Vietnamese participation in the debate was brought up by Soviet Delegate Platon D. Morozov, who introduced a resolution to have the council seek information from North Viet Nam relating to the U.S. complaint and to invite North Vietnamese representatives to take part in the debate.

Chief U.S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson said the United States had no objection to inviting North Viet Nam but the South Vietnamese should be asked too.

Morozov said the United States could "do without the assistance of these flunkies," but he agreed to pull back his resolution and let Nielsen draw one up.

Stevenson charged that attacks on U.S. destroyers by North Vietnamese torpedo boats in the Gulf of Tonkin on Sunday and Tuesday were part of a plan to subjugate all Southeast Asia.

Stevenson said the U.S. counterblow Wednesday was "limited and measured" to discourage further acts of aggression. He said President Johnson had given him explicit instructions to assure the council that the U.S. mission in Asia is "peace."

He said the United States had acted in self-defense and in accord with the U.N. charter.

Morozov denounced the U.S. air raids as "acts of aggression."

"The expansionist aims of the United States for extending the war in Southeast Asia are fraught with danger for the area," he said.

Roger W. Jackling of Britain said the United States had the right to act "to prevent the recurrence of attacks on her ships."

Navy Releases Pilots' Names, Families Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two Navy pilots listed as missing by the Pentagon after their North Vietnamese torpedo boats in the attack on North Viet Nam are 26-year-old Californians.

One, Lt. (jg) Everett Alvarez Jr., had been flying for the Navy since November 1961.

One—or neither—may be the pilot the North Vietnamese claim they captured. A Pentagon spokesman said Wednesday night he didn't know which, if either, was in Red hands.

At the young officers' homes there was the usual mixture of anxiety and hope.

"He seemed to feel that this was what he wanted to do," said Sather's sister, Mrs. Patricia Kriner, 28, of West Covina, Calif. She said that Sather's parents "were for what he wanted."

Sather, who was single, has another sister and a brother.

At Santa Clara, Alvarez' father, Everett Alvarez Sr., said the flier's family was holding to hope that he is not dead. "We're trying to keep up our hopes," he said.

Alvarez was married last December. His wife, Tangee, collapsed when she received notification and friends said she was put under sedation.

Alvarez is one of three children and the only son.

THIS IS Ho Chi Minh, president of North Viet Nam, whose government reported yesterday that five U.S. aircraft were shot down and three others damaged by ground fire during our retaliation attacks. The report also claims one American pilot was taken prisoner. The 74-year-old president is shown during an interview at Hanoi earlier this year. (AP Wirephoto)

U.S. Bombers Join Forces For Standby

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — About 30 U.S. Air Force B57 jet bombers, capable of carrying nuclear weapons when fitted for combat, today joined American and South Vietnamese forces standing watch to meet any attack from the Communist North.

The fleet of high-flying, twin-engine Canberras sped to Saigon unheralded while a steady shuttle of transport planes completed overnight a buildup of troops and material in the area adjoining the North Vietnamese frontier.

Air traffic came to a virtual halt today. The general feeling in Saigon was that, if nothing important happened in the next 24 hours, the Gulf of Tonkin crisis probably would be past.

The alert status in South Viet Nam's capital was nowhere near what it would be if an attack were considered imminent.

There was no public announcement of the arrival of the B57s but they were seen by a correspondent on a runway apron occupied Wednesday by six supersonic F102 Delta Dagger fighters from Okinawa. The F102s were gone, perhaps to augment defensive aerial forces at Da Nang, a base on the South China Sea 280 miles northeast of Saigon.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman discounted two Saigon rumors, which also lacked confirmation elsewhere.

One was a story that Ho Chi Minh, president of North Viet Nam, had been replaced by a pro-Peking subordinate in the North Vietnamese Communist party.

The other was that two squadrons of Soviet-made MIG fighters had been flown into North Viet Nam.

The spokesman said he "had nothing to back up" the rumor about Ho Chi Minh.

He said he had no information about MIGs.

So far, the crisis in the Gulf of Tonkin has produced no upsurge in attacks from the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam. Fighting was reported at near normal level, with some reduction in incidents.

The government reported South Vietnamese forces suffered 108 casualties during four strong Viet Cong attacks in various parts of the nation Wednesday.

All the incidents occurred before the U.S. bombing raids on North Vietnamese coastal bases and did not appear related to the tension in the Gulf of Tonkin.

The heaviest action was at Ba Ring, a hamlet in Ba Xuyen, Province 120 miles southwest of Saigon.

Bipartisan Support Seen For Johnson In Congress

By ERNEST VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two top Senate committees overwhelmingly approved today a resolution giving bipartisan backing to President Johnson's military actions in Southeast Asia.

The Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees sped the resolution to the Senate floor for what Democratic and Republican leaders hoped would be quick passage there.

They did so after Secretary of State Dean Rusk asked them to put Congress on record as leaving Communist aggressors "in no doubt whatever" of the unity and determination of the American people to defend Southeast Asia against Red aggression.

Only Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., a member of the Foreign Relations Committee who has denounced the resolution as a "predated declaration of war" in Asia, voted against it.

Rusk, supported by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, and Gen. Earle C. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told the senators recent North Vietnamese torpedo-boat attacks on U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin "are no isolated incident."

"They are part and parcel of a continuing Communist drive to conquer South Viet Nam, control or conquer Laos and eventually dominate and conquer other free nations of Southeast Asia," Rusk said.

Rusk, McNamara and Wheeler testified behind closed doors in support of the resolution giving bipartisan backing of Johnson's military actions in Southeast Asia. A copy of Rusk's opening statement was released by the committee.

The bipartisan leadership planned to bring up the resolution for quick passage in the Senate.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee also set a hearing, with its schedule calling for House passage Friday.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman, announced the combined vote of the two committees was 31 to 1.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., serves on both committees but voted only as a member of the Armed Services Committee.

The announced votes were 16-0 by the Armed Services Committee, 15-1 by Foreign Relations Committee.

Fulbright and Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., of the Armed Services Committee, said Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., a member of armed services, had reserved the right to offer an amendment to change one word on the resolution when it is called up in the Senate.

Both senators said they did not know what word Thurmond might want to change.

The speed of the schedule underscored the gravity with which Congress and the President view the two attacks by North Vietnamese PT boats on U.S. destroyers in international waters of the Gulf of Tonkin off the North Vietnamese coast.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., long a critic of U.S. Asian policy, denounced the resolution as "a predated declaration of war" and told the Senate he would not support it, either in the Foreign Relations Committee or on the floor.

But he ran up against a swelling tide of support for the President's actions against the North Vietnamese, fed by growing indignation against the North Vietnamese Communist regime.

Morse was speaking in the

Two Boys, 15, Buried Alive In Warwick

WARWICK, R. I. (AP) — Two 15-year-old boys were killed Wednesday night when trapped by a cave-in 15 feet below ground — where they had dug out an underground room.

A third boy was rescued after two hours of frantic rescue work.

Three other boys had just left the tunnel entrance when the cave-in occurred during a drenching rain. One of them, Bruce Charon, 15, said he felt backward as sand poured over him from the opening, but managed to dig himself out.

The victims were Michael J. Kasek Jr. and Frank J. Laprocka Jr., both of Warwick.

William E. Underwood Jr., 13, also of Warwick, was several feet nearer the surface than the Kasek and Laprocka boys when the heavy, wet sand came tumbling into the labyrinth of tunneling.

Some 50 firemen, police and volunteers worked feverishly to reach the boys. A power shovel and two backhoes were brought in before the rescue was completed.

The Underwood boy said he was buried up to his chest and the other two boys were buried completely.

Russian City Detroit's Sister

MOSCOW (AP)—Detroit and the Soviet city of Dushanbe have decided to become sister cities, the Soviet news agency Tass reported Wednesday.

Tass said that Ed Connor, president of Detroit's city council, agreed to this when he visited the Soviet republic of Tadzhikistan in central Asia with a U. S. Department of Health delegation. Dushanbe, formerly Stanlinabad, is the Tajik capital.

Tass said that Connor told one of its correspondents that Dushanbe has a wonderful layout and vast scale of housing construction and will make a wonderful sister city for Detroit.

Gregory Claims He Alerted FBI

HONOLULU (AP)—Negro comedian Dick Gregory said today he handed the FBI a letter pinpointing the location of the bodies of the slain civil rights workers in Mississippi.

Gregory, active in the civil rights movement, said he has a tape recording that contains the names of the killers of Michael Schwerner, 24, Andrew Goodman, 20, and James Chaney, 20. Gregory said the FBI has a copy of the tape.

The performer, who is entertaining at a Honolulu night club, called a news conference early today in which he made public a copy of the letter he said he handed the FBI about the location of the bodies.

Federal and state authorities today intensified the search for the killers of the three civil rights workers whose bodies were discovered after a painstaking 44-day search.

The state was rife with rumors that arrests were imminent but the FBI would neither confirm nor deny the report.

"I'll let my superiors in Washington do the talking," said Roy K. Moore, who came to Mississippi less than a month ago to head the FBI's expanded operations in the state.

There was another report — which also drew a no comment from authorities — that instead of arrests a grand jury would be asked to sift the evidence in the case and make indictments as it saw fit.

A pathological report from the University of Mississippi Medical Center here said all three were shot to death. The bullets were recovered, it was reported.

The decomposed bodies were dug out of an earthen watershed embankment in a thickly wooded region, infested with poisonous snakes, near Philadelphia, Miss., late Tuesday.

Andrew Goodman, 20, and Michael Schwerner, 24, both white New Yorkers, were positively identified, the FBI said. The third body was certain to be James Chaney, 22, Meridian Negro who had accompanied Goodman and Schwerner on a trip to Philadelphia from Meridian on June 21.

Arrested on a speeding charge, the trio spent six hours in jail at Philadelphia—A sleepy town of 5,000 in east central Mississippi 80 miles from Jackson. They posted bond late that night, reportedly drove off toward Meridian in their station wagon and were never heard from again. The charred hulk of their vehicle was located two days afterwards 20 miles from

Rattler Bites Livonia Boy

LANSING (AP) — The State Health Department and state police cooperated in rushing anti-snake bite serum to help a 15-year-old Livonia boy scout bitten by a rattlesnake Wednesday.

Ronald Chope was rushed to Lapeer General Hospital, where he was listed in satisfactory condition Wednesday night.

He was bitten on the thigh at the D-Bar-A Boy Scout Ranch near Metamora, where a lake dredging project apparently has stirred up snakes, the department said.

The boy was bitten about 2:30 p.m. State police rushed the serum from the health department laboratories here to the Capital City Airport—where it was put aboard a plane about an hour after the incident.

This was the second snake bite experienced at the ranch in nine days, the department said. The bite is rarely fatal, and not often serious.

Teen Drinkers Special Concern Of Youth Expert

It may be a little unusual for a member of the State Liquor Control Commission to be a former candidate for the priesthood, but that's the case with the youngest member of the commission.

He is Atty. Armand D. Bove, of St. Clair Shores, who attended the meeting of the commission in Escanaba this week. Tagged a political "comer" by some observers in Lansing, he is in the spot from which G. Mennen Williams springboarded himself into the longest tenure ever in Michigan's governor office.

Armand D. Bove

Bove's background and interest in youth work have given him a special concern about juvenile drinking in Michigan, which is a continuing problem for the State Liquor Control Commission. Most approaches to this problem, are single purpose. They are made by parents concerned about their children, by the police authorities or the courts, by state government as the custodian in the matter, or by licensees selling liquor to the public.

The Liquor Commission's interest covers all these fields, says Bove. "My commitment as a member," he says "is to aid in the administration of the state liquor law in fairness and justice, keeping in mind the two interests and rights with which we deal — the alcoholic beverage industry and its licensees — and the general public which is affected by their activities."

Defining Authority

"I am particularly concerned with the problems of juvenile drinking and have been attempting to clarify the law — which has been widely misunderstood with regard to minors — to licensees who appear before me on charges of selling alcoholic beverages to minors."

"The great pre-occupation of politicians, families, churches, civic leaders and government itself is the re-definition and the re-establishment of the true meaning and function of genuine authority in our society. Until this is accomplished, juvenile drinking and the evils young persons rounded up by police in under-age beer party gatherings plead guilty to be in disorderly persons in order to get the case over as quickly as possible and to avoid confrontation by their parents as well as the court. The fine is minor, the girl who pleads guilty may not even have taken a drink of beer.

The case is forgotten and then, years later, her employment card bears a notation: "Pleaded guilty to charge of being a disorderly person; fined $12." She wasn't a disorderly person. To avoid court appearance, where she probably couldn't have been found guilty on such sketchy happenstance, she has accepted a criminal record.

Was Seminarian

Bove was born in Detroit in 1933 and studied for the priesthood at Sacred Heart Seminary and at St. John's Provincial Seminary. He was given a scholarship to Notre Dame for a master's degree program, got his law degree at the University of Detroit in 1959, practiced law in Detroit until 1962, when he was the unsuccessful Republican candidate for prosecutor of Macomb County on the Romney ticket. Governor Romney appointed him to the Liquor Control Commission in 1963 and he also teaches social and political philosophy, psychology and metaphysics two nights a week at the University of Detroit.

He was appointed to the Wayne County Commission on Juvenile Delinquency, is secretary of the GOP State National Council (his ancestry is Italian and French), is treasurer of the Macomb County Catholic Social Services, and chairman of the Macomb County Adopted Fathers.

He and his wife Nancy have a daughter, Julie, 2, and a son, Paul Armand, 7 months. He received the Teacher of the Year award for 1963-64 at the University of Detroit.

grip of economic hard times, with black marketing, corruption, food shortages, unemployment and low wages.

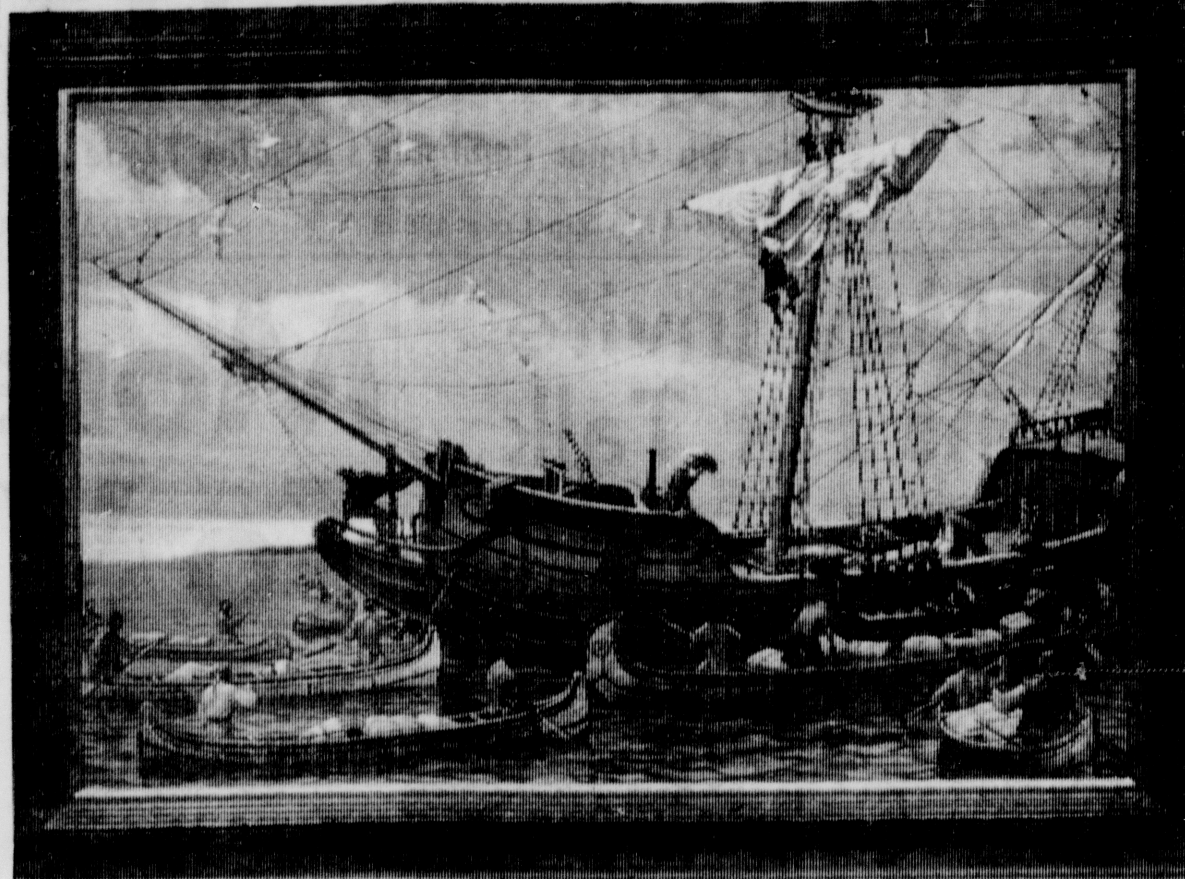

There seems to be no accurate information available on the size of the North Vietnamese military establishment, but the general view is that it has grown considerably since the victory of 1954. American intelligence sources say the army numbers 250,000 men, the navy 1,000 and the air force 300.

South Vietnamese sources say there may be as many as 500,000 in the army. Nationalist Chinese officials put the figure at closer to 300,000 or 350,000.

In North Viet Nam today there is an uneasy balance between the pro-Chinese faction and the pro-Soviet headed by Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap, the victor of Dien Bien Phu who is minister of defense. Le Duan, party secretary-general, is a close friend and protégé of Ho's and thus keeps the old man's influence alive and constantly felt. He and Premier Pham Van Dong are regarded by most observers as more favorable to the Soviets than to the Chinese.

Ho has maintained this precarious balancing act not only domestically but in the world Communist movement as well. There are signs, however, that the pressures from Peking are increasing and that even the pro-Soviets are beginning to bend toward their next door neighbor and its hard line. But Ho refuses to come down in either side in the Chinese-Soviet quarrel.

Historic Art Exhibit Will Come To Delta

The Delta County Historical Society is sponsoring the showing in Escanaba from Sept. 16-26, inclusive, paintings of historic moments in Michigan by artist Robert A. Thom of Birmingham.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. commissioned Thom to do 12 paintings. Seven have been completed and are available for exhibit. The other five will be finished within the next several months.

The paintings will come here from Mackinac Island and will then be displayed at Sault Ste. Marie. Historical Societies or other groups are local sponsors for the showings, which are offered without cost by Michigan Bell to the public.

Spalding Society Installs Officers

POWERS-SPALDING — St. Anne's Society of St. Francis Xavier Parish in Spalding held its regular monthly meeting Monday and installed new officers for the ensuing year.

New officers are: Bernice Wiecech, president; Rita Bellmore, vice-president; Anna Mae Fazer, secretary, and Maureen Smith, treasurer. Outgoing officers are Lilly Betters, Bernice Wiecech, Julia Kass and Helen LeBoeuf.

During the business meeting the Mother Cabrini Circle was chosen to serve at the Knights of Columbus breakfast on August 30. Mrs. Wiecech encouraged members to cooperate with the stamp project now underway.

Mrs. Lester Snrka gave a very interesting talk and showed articles made as hobbies by nuns. Her daughter, Mary Ann, (Sister Mary Ann Lester) recently pronounced her first vows as a School Sister of Notre Dame at Mequon, Wis.

New circle chairman for the society are Flora Nelson, Marilyn Dault, Stella Piche, Sophie Ledger, Lolita Sanford and Margaret Snrka.

New members received in to the society by Rev. Walter Franzek were: Mesdames Henry Bal, Donald Bal, Melvin Fazer, Anna Lawrence, Leno Pieporon and Machia. Members of St. Mary's Circle served refreshments following the meeting.

"My boy died a martyr for something he believed in — I believe in — and as soon as his little brother Ben gets old enough he'll take James' place as a civil rights worker," said the mother of Chaney. Her other son is 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodman learned that one of the bodies was their son, Andy, from a pre-dawn call from the White House.

"Our grief, though personal, belongs to our nation," said the elder Goodman at his New York home. "This tragedy is not private. It is a part of the public conscience of our country."

In Washington, Rita Schwermer, 22, widow of the other white civil rights worker, said she felt pity—"pity for anyone so frightened, so afraid, so full of hatred themselves, that the only action they can take is to lash out."

She vowed to continue in civil rights work "as long as I live."

James Gilroy Dies Today, 81

MANISTIQUE — James Arthur Gilroy, 81, of 214 Schoolcraft Ave., died at 5:45 a.m. today at the Lakefield Rest Home.

He was born Mar. 6, 1883 on St. Joseph's Island, Ontario, Canada and had been a resident of Manistique since 1899. He was in failing health for three years.

In late years he had been self-employed as a well driller and before that had worked for Inland Lime & Stone Co.

He married Stella Cutler in Sault Ste. Marie in 1902. She died in May, 1950. Surviving are one son, Howard, in Farmington; four daughters, Mrs. Leola Tennyson of Gulliver, Mrs. Roland Tennyson and Mrs. Raymond Lancelot of Manistique; and Mrs. James Mannoia of Sao Paulo, Brazil.

There are also four brothers surviving, Nelson and Albert of Sault Ste. Marie, Dan in British Columbia and Bernie in Port Huron; and two sisters, Mrs. Johnson McGray and Mrs. Frank Miller, of Sault Ste. Marie, 19 grandchildren and 39 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted in Messier Broulliere Funeral Home Saturday or Monday with burial in Fairview Cemetery.

Senate Wednesday when a White House official arrived with a special message from Johnson asking a congressional declaration of support for his decision to fight back against the North Vietnamese attacks on U.S. naval vessels.

Morse immediately launched into his criticism in which he said the incident which inspired the resolution was "as much the doing of the United States as it is the doing of North Viet Nam."

Among other things, he charged that a forerunner to the attacks was a bombardment by South Vietnamese naval vessels of "two North Vietnamese islands within three to five or six miles of the main coast of North Viet Nam." He said the implications were that the U.S. Navy stood guard during this attack.

The Historical Society plans to suggest to the City Council that the Municipal Dock be developed as an area devoted to the erection of anchors, ship's propellers, bells, capstans and other articles illustrative of the marine history of Delta County. Long before there were roads, ships sailed the water routes to early port settlements from Garden and Fayette to Escanaba and Gladstone.

The proposed Marine Park would be historically significant and would be expected to attract favorable attention from visitors.

Surgery Causes Bennett To End His Candidacy

Congressman John B. Bennett (R-Ontonagon) of Michigan's 12th district, who had earlier announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination in Michigan's new 11th District in the Sept. 1 primary, today said "regretfully, I am considering withdrawing from the congressional primary for reason of ill health."

Congressman Bennett continued: "I came to the Mayo Clinic (at Rochester, Minn.) for surgery which has been completed, but the doctors have now advised me that it will not be possible for me to do any campaigning for several weeks. This means that I will be unable to actively campaign before the Sept. 1 primary."

"I have been looking forward confidently to winning the Republican nomination and also the general election on Nov. 3. I feel, however, that it would be unfair on my part to expect friends to wage the campaign in my behalf without any assistance from me."

"My thousands of friends and voters have consistently helped in my campaigns during the 20 years that I have served in Congress and I will always be grateful to them."

"I confidently hoped that I would have an opportunity to serve the people in the new congressional district in the same diligent, faithful and conscientious manner that I have dealt with economic problems of our area as well as the personal problems for many thousands of people in my present district."

The indicated withdrawal of Congressman Bennett from the 11th District Republican primary leaves Congressman Victor A. Knox (Sault Ste. Marie) unopposed for the nomination. Knox is now representing the 11th District in the House. The district has been greatly enlarged from its present size by the state's 1964 reapportionment to form a part of the new 11th District which includes all of the counties of the Upper Peninsula plus 7 counties in the top of the Lower Peninsula. The present 12th District represented by Bennett comprises 8 counties in the western U. P.

Rep. John B. Bennett

There are three candidates for the Democratic nomination in the 11th District: Atty. Raymond Clevenger of Sault Ste. Marie, Atty. Russell Bradley of Menominee and Atty. Theodore Albert of Ironwood.

Business Stable Despite Viet Nam

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Business executives are likely to take a calmer view of the Viet Nam military showdown than do traditionally more emotional stock traders.

The stock market's quick drop after the U.S.-North Viet Nam naval encounter was its normal reaction to uncertainty.

Business executives are more prone to keep an eye on the economy itself and find scant reason as yet for overhauling their plans.

Neither stock traders nor business management like uncertainty. And the possibilities they might read into the dramatic developments in Southeast Asia will give both pause.

But it's the volatile stock trader who will react first — either selling some stocks in a flight from uncertainty and to cash in on paper profits, or buying others on the chance of a pickup in orders from a shooting war.

The economy is too strong, however, for what is still a brush war — and could prove to be only a minor one — to upset it.

Much of the excitement in the stock market comes from the in-and-out traders. They look for the quick profit, move fast to cut a feared loss. When they don't know what might happen, as was the case Tuesday, their instinct is to get out of the market while they're still ahead.

And many of them have a good chance just now to take sizable profits. The market has been climbing most of the time since November. Many stocks bought last December or January have sizable paper profits for the taking, and now are in the six months range for long-term capital gains accounting for tax purposes.

Business takes a longer view. A shooting war in Viet Nam, if it doesn't spread into a much wider conflict, won't upset the general prosperity. Nor will it enhance it.

A few companies may hope for more defense orders. Most U. S. corporations will expect orders and sales to stay on the present course—some companies helped by existing defense orders, many more prospering from high consumer demands.

The ups-and-downs of the stock market in the tense days just ahead could be far less significant for the economy in the long run than the headlines may make them seem. And most business decision-makers are well aware of this.

Law Requires Immunization

A law passed by the Michigan Legislature requires all children enrolling in school for the first time in Michigan to submit a signed statement on immunizations.

The parents will have a choice of one of four statements. The first states that the child has been adequately immunized against smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, and polio. This statement must be signed by the parent and a physician.

If this statement is not signed because the child has not been immunized at the time of entrance to school, there are three other possible choices. The parents may indicate that they are going to have the immunization done by the private physician, or that they will request the local health department to do this, or that they will not have the immunizations because of religious or other convictions.

The law applies to all children enrolling in public, private, parochial or denominational school in Michigan for the first time.

This law was passed for the purpose of protecting the health of all school children against the spread of contagious disease. It was felt that a signed statement at the time of entrance to school would serve as a check point to be sure that the child either was immunized or would be during that first year of school.

Smallpox vaccination is usually done in the first year of life and it is necessary for a child to be revaccinated approximately every four or five years. At the time of the revaccination the child usually will not develop another scar, because of the immunity of the first scar. If any child entering school has never had a vaccination for smallpox, this should be done prior to the school year.

Diphtheria, whooping cough, and tetanus are commonly known as the triple injections, and these are usually given combined in the first year of life. Booster doses should be received at approximately three year intervals also. If a child entering school has not had a booster within the three years prior to starting he should receive one at that time.

The recommended schedule for polio vaccine for protection against that disease is to give two doses one month apart followed by a third dose seven months later. Following the third dose a fourth dose should be given, which serves as a booster, approximately one year or more after the third dose. To be adequately immunized against polio a child entering school should have the fourth dose of vaccine if it has been a year or more since the last injection.

Bay Level Foot Under Last Year

The level of Lake Michigan-Huron and Green Bay-Bay de Noc during July 1964 was 0.94 foot below the level of July 1963 and 3.34 feet below the average July level since 1860.

The July level was 0.29 foot below the lowest level on record in 1934 and 5.91 feet below the highest level on record in 1876.

The change from June to July was an increase of 0.05 foot. The average change for the same period is an increase of 0.13 foot.

Action Speeded In Judge's Court

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
PITTSBURGH (AP) — The wheels of justice grind faster in Allegheny County these days thanks to a computer and a man whose mind, associates say, works like one.

The system is the brainchild of Judge Henry Ellenbogen, Vienna-born president judge of the Allegheny County Common Pleas Court.

The court, with 19 judges and 204 fulltime employees, is the eighth largest metropolitan court in the United States.

Oppressed by the heavy backlog of civil cases such as plaques courts across the country, Ellenbogen ordered a study of the problem soon after becoming president judge less than two years ago.

He said the need of a computer to speed administrative tasks became apparent almost immediately.

The computer operation began in October 1963 with an order from Judge Ellenbogen that thereafter all attorneys would have to fill out special cards for each case. Each attorney also was assigned a number.

Since then the case backlog has been reduced by one-third with the definite possibility it soon may be eliminated.

At the start of the program, there were 8,000 cases pending.

There are now 5,559. The time lapse between when a case is filed and when it is finally settled has been reduced from 3 1/2 years to two.

Judge Ellenbogen said the computer enables the court to know in a matter of minutes the complete history of any case and in a matter of hours the complete breakdown on the number and types of cases pending or the number of cases a single lawyer or law firm is handling.

In the past, the judge said, such statistical information would have been impossible to obtain.

Charles Starrett Jr., administrative assistant to Judge Ellenbogen, said the Allegheny County system is unique in that it follows a case from start to finish. Computers are in use in other cities, he said, mainly to record phases of cases or isolated statistics such as fees.

Despite the computer, there has been little effect on employment according to Starrett. Employees who used to have to dig through the files to compile these lists, now have been trained to run the computer.

Judge Ellenbogen graduated from Duquesne University Law School and went into private practice in Pittsburgh. He served three terms in Congress from 1932 until his election in 1938 to his first 10-year term on the Common Pleas bench.

Of the use of a computer in court work, the judge said: "I believe we are on the threshold of a great and basic reform in court administration."

New Hoist Crane Retires Pike Poles At Birds Eye

Logs from which come the fine veneers produced by the Birds Eye Veneer Co. of Escanaba deserve respectful handling, and that's what they get now that a crane and hoist have been installed.

Not that the logs were ever given anything but the kindest treatment — but when they must be speared with pike poles and grabbed with tongs there is sure to be holes, gouges and bruises. These holes were on the outside of the log, where they hurt most, since this is the most desirable part for veneer, explained Russell Lee, Birds Eye Veneer Co. president and general manager.

The overhead traveling crane is a P&H manufactured by Harnischfeger Corp., and the logs are gripped by a Prentiss Hydraulic Bucket. Installation of the equipment is complete.

In the past the logs in the hot pond were speared with pike poles by hand, brought to a narrow opening and where another workman dropped tongs over the logs. Then a P&H zip lift took them out of the water and they were carried into the plant by overhead rail.

Men Worked Nights

The new hoisting and traveling crane with its hydraulic bucket takes the logs from the drag saw and places them in the hot pond, which is also new; and then lifts them out of the water and carries them into the mill.

Before the new installation, about 20 per cent of the logs had to be rolled into the pond by hand. The remainder were dumped in with a truck crane.

The new crane and pond and other changes have taken a little longer to complete than had been anticipated, said the Birds Eye president.

"All of our employees have been most cooperative during this period of adjustment," said Lee. "For example, for one week while crews were erecting the bridge crane during the days, our own employees worked nights so they wouldn't be in the way of the contractor's men and delay the job."

New Hot Pond

The new hot pond was necessary because the original tanks were built in 1913 and were beyond repair, Lee explained. The new tanks and crane were installed outside the plant walls, and with removal of the old tanks there will be gained additional room which is much needed behind the lathes.

Water in the new tanks is heated with steam enclosed in copper tubing. In the past live steam and exhaust steam were poured into the pond to heat the water. The new method gives more uniform control and quicker heating.

Logs are placed in the new tank with the crane, and by this method more logs can be gotten into smaller space, thus reducing the amount of water required and increasing the log capacity. Plumbing for the project is by R. G. Beck of Escanaba and the construction contractor is Al Brandt of Escanaba.

A new drag saw room has been constructed and moved outside, which relieves the space problem somewhat inside the plant and provides a fully automatic operation copied from successful operating plants on the West Coast. In the drag saw room the logs are cut to the required length before being placed in the hot pond for soaking.

Savings To Workers

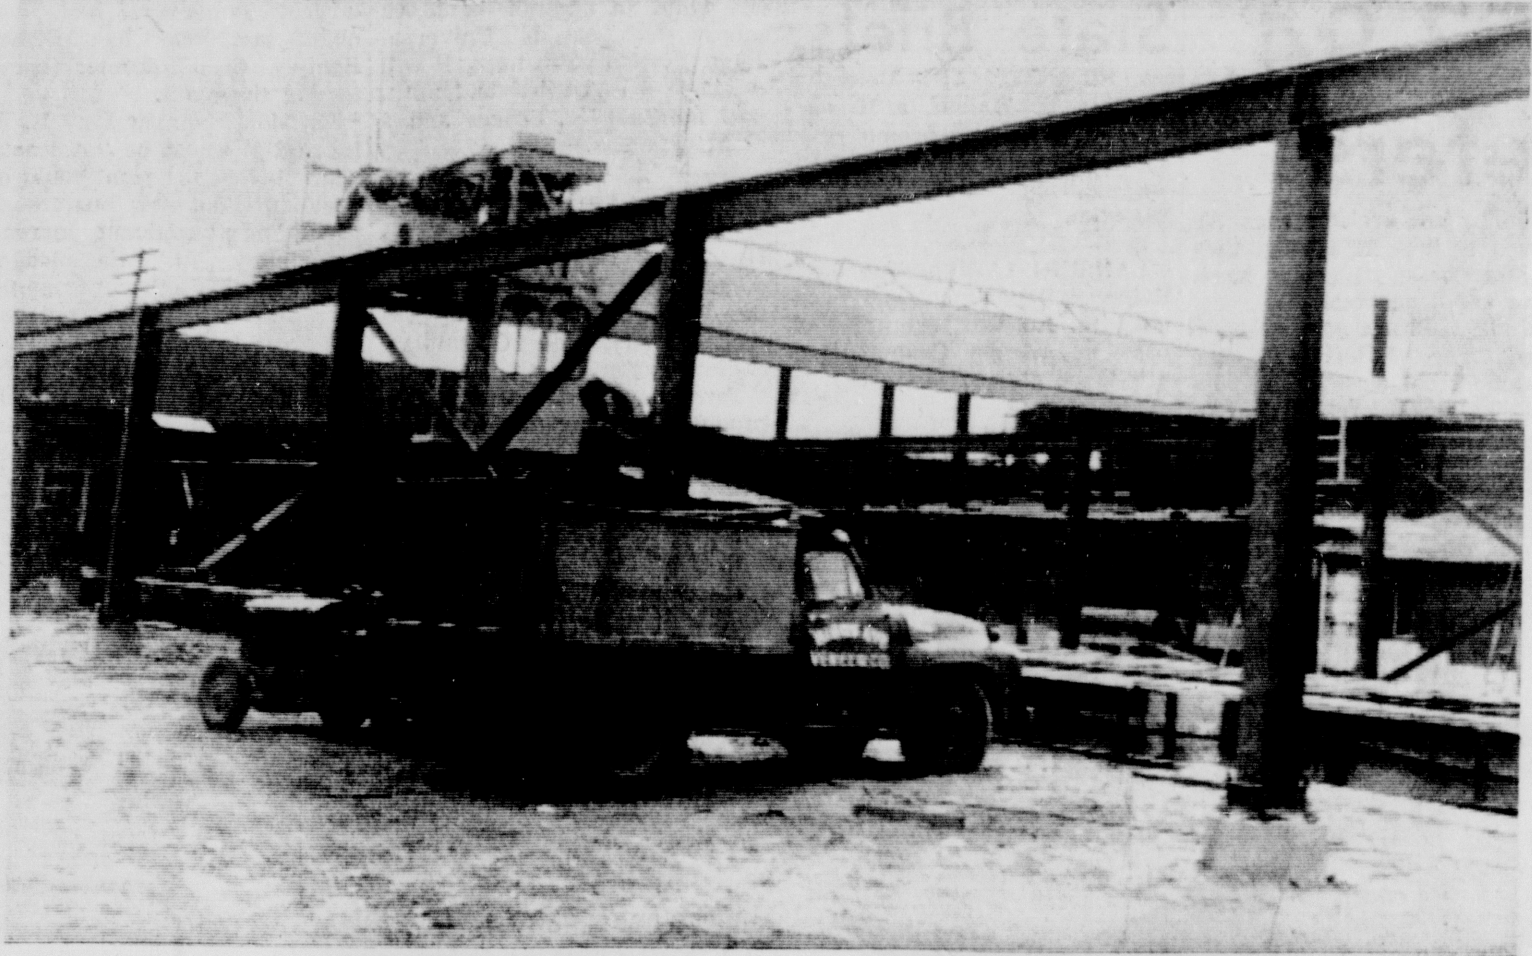

"We hope the savings in labor and materials as a result of these improvements will a little more than equal the wage increases given the employees in the present two-year contract with the union," said Lee. The employees are members of the AFL-CIO.

Another development at the Birds Eye Veneer Co. plant is the completion of a sample room, where the temperature and humidity are carefully controlled, and where is displayed samples of veneers produced by the firm, plus samples of its imported veneers.

With controlled temperature and humidity the samples do not pick up moisture and do not buckle, thus keeping them in the best condition for the critical inspection of the prospective buyer. The customer can see in the sample room three typical sheets of veneer from a 100-sheet log, thus assuring him of consistent pattern throughout the 100 sheets.

Birds Eye Veneer Co., whose history in Escanaba dates back to 1912 when it was created as a specialty plant for the manufacture of birds eye maple veneer, is increasing its imports of exotic woods. Decorative elm and ash burls, plus teak and some rosewoods were imported to Escanaba and sold.

Birds eye maple, still one of the world's most exotic woods, comes largely from the Northern Michigan region, but is only a small part of the company's production. Now birch is most widely used.

A BRIDGE CRANE carries logs that before were in part moved by men with pike poles and tongs at the Birds Eye Veneer Co. plant in Escanaba. This and other developments, including a new hot pond, drag saw room, and sample room have brought most notable advances in the more than half-century history of the company. (Daily Press Photo)

John Zerbel, head of Thunder Bay Enterprises, Inc., at Marquette, lunched at the Stone House here this week and reported that the Marquette & Huron Mt. Railroad is building substantial business.

The all-steam, standard gauge railroad runs from its Marquette's Presque Isle station to Big Bay (Thunder Bay) several trips daily for steam railroad buffs and other recreation seekers. The trains are carrying about 250 persons a day now, said Zerbel.

On Tuesday morning the conductor punched 96 paid tickets.

Weekends are poorest, said Zerbel, as tourists are the chief support of the venture. The word is being passed that it's a great ride and business building in a heartening manner.

"We won't make any money this year, but we're on our way," said Zerbel, the former head of the Marble Corps., of Gladstone.

Suspect Admits Shooting Light

The State Police and Delta County sheriff office report their joint investigation of the shooting out of a streetlight in Flat Rock at 1:30 a.m. Aug. 4 has revealed it was done by Andrew Budkis, 23, of Mills Trailer Court, Escanaba, who was in the company of two companions.

The investigation is continuing. Budkis admitted the shooting, officers said.

She Is 97-57-94, In Centimeters

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The room was full of lovely maidens so charming that butter wouldn't melt in their mouths.
As a matter of fact, they were all so figure-conscious that most of them left the butter untouched on their plates.
The occasion was a luncheon for a group billed as "20 of the world's most beautiful girls" en route to a pageant at Long Beach, Calif., Aug. 14 where one will be named "Miss International Beauty."
Meeting beauty contestants is pretty much like sight-judging rhubarb pies at a county fair. You don't know much about the filling—but the crusts all begin to look much alike.
I was sitting there glumly forking at some tired peas and feeling rather sorry for myself. Then I met the pretty lemon buyer.
She came over and sat down beside me and said that she was Erika Augustin, that she came from Vienna, and that she was "Miss Austria."
She had reddish-brown hair and eyes the color of a Mediterranean sky in spring.
Erika turned out to be friendly, affable and frank.
"I am no teen-ager," she admitted. She leaned across the table and confided, "I am 25."
Well, that made her different right away. A 25-year-old beauty contestant is about as rare as an octogenarian trying to climb Mt. Everest.
"I did this just for joking," she said. "It is the first contest I have entered."
"In Vienna I model sometimes. I had it in mind to be an actress. But I had to choose a serious work to earn money."
"I am secretary and buyer for a fruit firm. I travel to the South Tyrol and buy apples and pears, and I travel to Greece and buy oranges and lemons."
I dutifully asked the question you must ask all beauty contest entrants or they feel cheated.
"What are your...uh...uh...?"
I said. Miss Austria drew herself up proudly.
"I am high one meter, 65 centimeters," she said.
"My other measurements are 97-57-94."
"Inches?" I inquired, taking notes furiously.
"No—centimeters," she replied. "I don't know what my

Muskegon River Bridge Collapses At Big Rapids

BIG RAPIDS (AP) — A city tax increase may be in store here as the result of the collapse last week of a 50-year-old bridge across the Muskegon River.
City Manager George Granger estimates "as much as a mill and a half" may be necessary to finance replacement of the structure which fell under the weight of a dairy truck loaded with 4,000 gallons of ice cream.
Driver Dale MacTavish, 46, of Cedar Springs, escaped injury in the mishap.
Granger told the city commission a new bridge would cost up to $200,000, depending upon condition of mid-river footings.
He claimed the most efficient method of raising the money would be to float revenue bonds against the city's motor vehicle highway maintenance fund receipts.
Granger said the proposed tax increase was required because local funds would be needed to maintain roads and highways in place of money diverted to pay off the bridge debt.
Scott Engineering Co. of Alpena has been retained to design a new span and a wrecking crew was expected to complete removal of the old bridge debris this week.
Marquette Harbor Included In Bill For Public Works
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee Wednesday approved a $4.4 billion public works bill carrying funds for numerous water projects for the year which began July 1.
In addition to proposed Michigan projects earlier passed by the House, the committee inserted a $50,000 appropriation for planning a harbor at New Buffalo.
Other state projects approved were:
Construction—Charlevoix harbor, $150,000; Gladstone harbor, $172,000; Manistee harbor, $500,000; Marquette harbor, $150,000;
Muskegon harbor, $500,000; Muskegon harbor, breakwaters, piers and revetments, $15,000; Rouge River, $400,000; St. Mary's River, new Poe Lock, $5.5 million; Saginaw River, flood control, $750,000.
Planning — Leland harbor, $91,000; Saginaw River, navigation, $vk77ko50.
A parsec is a unit of astronomical measurement equal to approximately 39 trillion miles.

State Briefs

YPSILANTI (AP)—Detective Lt. Ray H. Walton, a 16-year-veteran, is being promoted to Ypsilanti police chief, succeeding retiring Chief Emile E. Susterka.
LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department is surveying sites for two rest areas on I-196 in Allegan County. Both are to be started next year.
ALLEGAN (AP) — Rockwell Standard Corp. said today it will build an addition of 16,000 square feet at its Universal Joint Division plant here. It will embrace a renovated test area, new laboratories, offices and a plant cafeteria.

IONIA (AAP) — A layoff of about 900 employees at the Ionia Division of Dowsmith Inc. was announced today with the end of the Production year for 1964 model Buick and Oldsmobile station wagon bodies.
Termination of a contract to produce the bodies, a large part of its operations here as Ionia's largest employer, had been noted last year by Mitchell-Bentley Corp., former operators of the plant.

Division Manager Paul R. Ellis said it would be "at least a year" before the plant could expect sufficient new business to permit a "significant increase in employment." He pledged, however, that other companies in the area would be contacted in efforts to find work for Dowsmith's displaced employees.
He also noted that construction of a new plastics molding plant is expected to be complete early in 1965 with prospects for employing about 90 persons by next summer.

Ellis said about 50 division workers would continue on their jobs in the production of Corvette auto bodies after the model changeover is completed about Aug. 10.
CHEBOYGAN (AP)—Charmin Paper Products Co., said today it has purchased one city block across from its mill here with a view toward possible future expansion.
The firm is headquartered in Green Bay, Wis., and operates as a subsidiary of Procter & Gamble Co. Its Cheboygan mill, now an automated operation, still is one of the city's major employers with some 75 workers.

The purchase announcement said there were no immediate plans for expansion but looked toward future needs.
ANN ARBOR (AP)—The sky will be filled with the year's biggest celestial fireworks Monday or Tuesday night, says University of Michigan astronomer

Hazel M. Losh. The annual Perseid shower is expected to reach its peak then, with as many as one shooting star or meteor per minute, she said.
PORT HURON (AP) — Lakeport State Park, north of Port Huron, has been ordered closed to campers by the State Conservation Department because of low water levels. Two of three wells in the Lake Huron park have gone dry. While the park is closed to campers, its beach and picnic areas will remain open.

Cynthia Russell Bride Of A. J. Hauptman Jr.

Mrs. Albert J. Hauptman Jr.

The altars of St. Peter's Cathedral in Marquette were set with white gladioli and large white chrysanthemums for the wedding ceremony Saturday of Miss Cynthia Lee Russell and Albert J. Hauptman Jr.

Rev. Vincent Ouellette officiated at the double ring ceremony and was celebrant of the nuptial high mass for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Russell, of Marquette, publisher of the Escanaba Daily Press, and the son of the senior Hauptmans of Chicago.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a gown of antique-white silk linen trimmed with wide bands of Venetian lace on the bodice, elbow sleeves and narrow skirt. The lace also outlined the square chapel train. A bouffant veil of silk illusion was held by a matching pillbox, and the bridal bouquet was a cascade of yellow roses and stephanotis.

Attendants

Miss Cynthia Ellen Russell was her sister's maid of honor, with Miss Jan Jacobson, Lakewood, and Miss Nancy Clark, Tecumseh as bridesmaids.

The attendants were gowning in floor-length dresses of pale gold lin de soie having scoop necklines, brief sleeves and A-line skirts set off by Empire waists and side-front unpressed pleats. Their headpieces were circlets of fresh smilax foliage, and they carried cascade bouquets of Marquise daisies with ivy.

The junior bridesmaids, Jane Russell, sister of the bride, and Catherine Borro, wore lime-green linen gowns with long A-line skirts. Boleros and three-quarter Bishop sleeves were fashioned of chiffon, and the necklines were accented with cowl collars. Their headpieces were daisy wreaths, and they carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies.

James Foundation Gives 96 Million To Institutions

NEW YORK (AP) — The James Foundation announced it has given away its last $96 million and will go out of existence Dec. 31.

The fund was founded in the will of Arthur Charles James, who once owned one-seventh of all the railroad mileage in the United States.

He died in 1941, leaving $26 million to the fund, which was to operate for 25 years unless its trustees ended it sooner. Some of it was invested in such stocks as International Business Machines and American Natural Gas.

It grew and grew. Over the years the fund has given away $42 million, in addition to the $96,350,000 in the final grants. The last gifts went to 92 institutions in amounts ranging from $100,000 to $5.5 million.

Former Germfask Resident Marries In Plymouth, Wis.

GERMFASK — A former resident, Miss Sharon Faith Seaman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Counterman, Grafton, Wis. and Marvin M. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Miller, Plymouth, Wis., spoke their marriage vows July 23 at a 3 p. m. double ring ceremony in Zoar United Church of Christ at Plymouth, Wis.

Their attendants were best man, Warren Goetsch of Plymouth, groomsmen Wayne Mueller of Odell, Wis., a brother of the bridegroom, and Eugene Miller a brother of the bridegroom and Fredrick Miller, a cousin of the bridegroom ushered.

The bride wore a white dress of lace and tulle with the fitted bodice of lace and long tapered sleeves. It had a scalloped scoop neckline. Tiers of tulle edged with scalloped lace highlighted the bouffant floor length skirt and a floor length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a forward hat of embossed rosebuds and lilies of the valley. The bride carried yellow roses and white feathered carnations and leather fern.

The matron of honor and bridesmaid wore dresses of lemon yellow and ice mint, with sleeveless bodices and bell shaped skirts and over skirts of matching chantilly lace.

They wore headpieces of a nylon flower and velvet leaves to match their dresses, flowers of the matron of honor were yellow daisies with ice mint ribbons and the bridesmaid had white daisies and yellow ribbons.

The mother of the bride wore a two piece beige dress with beige and tan accessories, her flowers were white carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue lace dress with white and blue accessories her flowers were white carnations.

Following the wedding ceremony a lawn reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents for about 100 guests.

The newly married couple will make their home at Plymouth, Wis.

The bride attended high school at Manistique and for two years prior to her marriage was employed at the Lake Central Leather Co. at Grafton, Wis. The bridegroom attended Random Lake High School and is employed at the Knowles Manufacturing Company.

Escanaba Class Of '44 Holds 20 Year Reunion

The Escanaba High School Class of 1944 held its 20th anniversary reunion on August 1 at the Dells Supper Club. The weekend activities began Saturday afternoon with a tour of the new Escanaba High School conducted by Dr. William Hemes.

The evening festivities opened with a cocktail hour at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner in the Dells dining rooms. The class colors of blue and white were used in attractive name tags and centerpieces. A huge bouquet of gladioli adorned the speakers' table and smaller arrangements accented the dining tables. Candles of blue and white added to the decor. At each place setting an attractively printed program of orange and black was placed. Contained in the program were addresses of all classmates. Other favors were added to make the setting complete.

Rev. Mark Bergman gave the invocation followed by a short memorial service. The after dinner program featured Jack Molin who reminisced on the 1944 class will and prophesy. Comments of the year 1944 and other highlights were made by special guest speaker and former class advisor, Charles Folio. Guest, Nick Petry extended his greetings to the class and brought back memories of '44.

Toastmaster Dr. William Hemes presided over the presentation of special gifts. Gifts were received by John Madden, Mrs. George (Hazel Nelson) Sealander, Roy Williams, Mrs. Miles (Pat McCauley) Dugener, Rev. Mark Bergman, Mr. and Mrs. Donald (Ellen Marie Flath) Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence (Mary Jean Rian) Kidd, Ronald Bennett, Robert Corbett, Roger Murray and Alton Dautre.

In original prose Jack Beck recited his thanks to committee members and his thanks to all for a successful reunion. Rev. Bergman gave the benediction.

Those attending the reunion from out-of-town were: Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bennett, St. Paul, Minn.; Rev. and Mrs. Mark Bergman, Chicago, Ill.;

Glenn Bittner, Selma, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowers, Evanston, Ill.; Louis Derouher, Marinette, Wis.; Miss Mae De-rocher, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Alton Dautre, Appleton, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald (Ellen Marie Flath) Miller, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Flynn, Hillsdale, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Johnson, Oneida, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Forest Kallin, Oswego, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Nick (Helen Kashinski) Alfonso, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Keith (Mary Lou Kessler) MacDonald, Menominee Falls, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. George (Mary Alcie LaPine) Arntson, Stevens Point, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry (Donna Layman) Qualls; Miss Erlaine Legg, Iron Mountain;

Michigan's First Weather Rocket Launched In U.P.

COOPER HARBOR (AP) — Michigan's first weather-detecting rocket was fired successfully Wednesday in an unannounced launching on the Keweenaw Peninsula in Upper Michigan.

The launching by a University of Michigan team was almost simultaneous with a statement that the firing—aimed at putting the state in the meteorological rocket network—would be held next week.

The Michigan Department of Economic Expansion, financing the project, announced Wednesday the first launching was set for Aug. 12, then said later it had just been told of the launch.

A slender Arcas rocket, about a payload of meteorological instruments and transmitted signals for 14 minutes back to ground equipment, said Art O'Connor of the Economic Department. He called the launch a success.

The project will determine the feasibility of gaining more weather information for the meteorological network by adding a firing station at mid-continent. Keweenaw Peninsula is the northernmost portion of Michigan.

Four other experimental launchings are planned by Sept. 4. Most of them are set for Wednesdays at noon.

The launch equipment is essentially portable, but a permanent installation could be built at Keweenaw Point.

That would give the 5-year-old network a station between present installations at Wallops Island, Va., and Fort Churchill, Manitoba.

Such a station would cost about $150,000 to build and $100,000 a year to maintain, say project officials.

The University of Michigan and Michigan Technological University have received a $52,850 project grant from the Economic Expansion Department, which seeks to diversify and add to the state's economic base.

U-M spokesmen said the rocket blasted off at 10:07 a.m. and soared to a height of 41 miles before plunging into Lake Superior 20 miles east of the launching site five minutes later.

The Arcas measured temperature, air pressure and density and wind velocity and radioed back to the ground until the rocket was destroyed on impact. No attempt was made to recover it.

U-M officials hailed the firing as a significant step toward demonstrating that the peninsula would be a useful addition to the network.

Rock 4-H Club Tours Peninsula As Club Project

The Rock 4-H club enjoyed a tour of some parts of the Upper Peninsula Saturday. The club paid all expenses with funds raised last winter.

In spite of the rain Saturday morning, the tour began at 6 a.m. The first stop was Big Spring where the group went across the spring on the raft. At Seney, the group hiked the nature trail and watched the geese show off in the pools. The group also made the tour with the bus through the game refuge area.

The next stop was for eating the packed lunch at a roadside table before arriving at Grand Marais. They stopped at the Sable Falls and the Sand Dunes. The members climbed the dunes barefooted, and waded in the lake afterward.

The group arrived at Munising at 4:30 p.m. for the boat ride to see the Pictured Rocks. The cruise was made on the Tiger Lady II from 5 to 8 p.m. The group got back to Rock about 10:30 p.m.

Legion Auxiliary

The Rock American Legion Auxiliary will meet today at 8 p.m. at the Rock Lions club. On the lunch committee are Viola Trombly and Jane Salo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geib visited at the John Small home enroute home to Detroit after vacationing in North Dakota.

Train Passes By, Hangs Man's Goat

ROVIGO, Italy (AP) — Farmer Martino Ferrari looked out of the tavern window and discovered to his dismay that he had hanged his own goat.

Ferrari bought the goat Tuesday. He was leading it home with a rope around its neck when he came to a railway grade crossing with the bar down. He tied the rope around the bar and went into a nearby tavern to wait for the train to pass.

Next time he looked out the window, the train had passed, the bar had lifted, and the goat was hanged.

FOR SHOW, NOT GO

WALTON, Ky. (AP) — Volunteer firemen in Walton want it known they're up to date even if they bought a 1918 fire truck.

The old vehicle was overhauled and dolled up for parades and the like.

West Africans Get Music Man

Bo, Sierra Leone (AP) — A modern day music man brought here by the Peace Corps is causing a rhythmic revolution in this West African land.

There was plenty of primitive tribal rhythm but only two organized bands—the army and the police—when James C. Polite arrived less than a year ago. He organized a 40-piece school band, is planning a drill team, tutoring other teachers in music, and launching a widespread music curriculum.

The short, plump Negro hustles around this up-country town on a motorbike. At 48 he is older than most Peace Corpsmen.

He has made such an impact that Sierra Leone officials recently asked the Peace Corps for four additional bandmasters "with Jim Polite's qualifications and if possible his ability."

Polite feels the same way about Sierra Leone, a former British colony in Africa. It's about the size of South Carolina.

He composed a song "Sir Milton Margai" to honor the late prime minister; and an ode to Catholic Training College which is his headquarters here. He writes some tunes in a type of pidgin English called Krio and plans a more elaborate piece of music based on local rhythms and titled "African Boogie."

He says: "It's O.K. to bring U.S. musicians like Louis Armstrong or Cozy Cole over here to entertain but what do these people have left after the visitors have gone? I think it's better in the long run if Sierra Leoneans can entertain themselves with music."

He came here with a varied background as a music teacher starting when he gave informal lessons to friends in Civilian Conservation Corps camps in the 1930s. He studied music at Dillard University in New Orleans and at Chicago Vandercook College and at Roosevelt University. Polite organized 15 elementary and high school bands and spent three years in U.S. Army musical groups.

"They told me when I came here that these people didn't want music — that they were just hungry for basic schooling and not songs," said Polite. "But I was quickly convinced a music program would work and that there was a real need for it."

The whirligig beetle has only one pair of eyes, but can see both above and below. Each eye is separated into two parts by the side margin of the head and one pair watches for enemies above the surface of the water, while the other watches for danger from below.

Money Speaks For Polish Too

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Angry Polish tourists have learned that money talks louder at the Communist Riviera on Bulgaria's Black Sea coast when it is hard Western currency.

Orbis, the Polish tourist agency, reported in a statement today that its Bulgarian counterpart, Balkan Tourist, "has for the first time in many years let us down." It charged that more than 200 Poles who paid for first-class accommodations were given "third-class or worse."

Bulgaria's "Golden Sands" coast for years has been the preferred playground of East European vacationers. Recently, seeking hard currency, Bulgaria has been advertising vigorously in the West, and West Europeans are flocking there.

The population of Asia increases at the rate of about 30 million annually.

Leaders Plan To Raise Cash For Elections

LANSING (AP) —Republican leaders, including Gov. George W. Romney, conferred Tuesday on plans for a "coordinated effort" to raise $1.7 million for the 1964 election campaign in Michigan.

State Chairman Arthur Elliott Jr. said $1.2 million of the total will be used to help finance the campaigns of state office candidates, with the other $500,000 earmarked for the national campaign.

Others present at the meeting included Arthur Summerfield Jr., regional chairman of fund-raising for GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, and Creighton Holden, who will be Goldwater's Michigan campaign chairman.

Elliott said the meeting dealt with "the need for coordinating our fund-raising activities and the fact that we must meet our state quota."

Within the quota, he said, there either will be funds provided for "housekeeping chores" for the Goldwater campaign, or his organization will have to raise some additional funds.

A "Citizens for Goldwater" organization is being set up in Michigan and may serve as the Arizona senator's regular campaign body in the state. Its function, however, apparently will be mainly campaigning and not fund-raising.

Open Two Gates Into River At Soo

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — Authorities unleashed tons of water from the plentiful supply of Lake Superior Tuesday to help replenish Lakes Michigan and Huron.

With three gates already gushing water down the St. Marys River to the two low-level lakes, the International Lake Superior Board of Control opened two more gates.

An additional 10,000 cubic feet per second poured through the two extra gates, the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers said.

The outflow "will lower Lake Superior a bit, but it's got plenty to spare," an Army Engineers spokesman said. "It is the only lake in the Great Lakes that has water to spare."

A week ago, engineers predicted Lakes Huron and Michigan would drop to record low water levels by the end of December. Only Lake Superior was forecast to remain anywhere near the average water level for the last 100 years.

Curtis

Birthday Party

All Saints Episcopal Church at Newberry gave a surprise birthday party for C. A. Lewis of Curtis, senior warden of the church. A loving cup from the congregation in recognition of things done for the church was presented to him by Rev. Kopera. Mrs. Robert McCraney, president of the Women's Guild was in charge of the arrangements. Mrs. C. A. Lewis was also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mayo of Cedar Springs and Mr. and Mrs. John McGahan and Johnny McGahan visited Sault Ste. Marie Canada and Michigan and also in Newberry on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Welch of Utica are staying at their summer home here. Marvin Gager and son Michael of Manitowoc, Wis., who are visiting at Seney, visited at the home of Mr. Gager's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John McGahan.

The Junior League ball team beat Grand arais Sunday by a score of 8-6.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Ackley and family of Hillman visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Basil McGahan Sunday.

Nancy Wilhelm of Battle Creek is visiting Miss Susan Lewis.

The Lake Superior Board of Control, a joint agency of the United States and Canadian governments, planned to keep the two extra gates open from Lake Superior for 30 days.

Even at 10,000 cubic feet more water per second, engineers said Lakes Huron and Michigan would not be brought up to their levels of last year. The two lakes are a foot below the year-ago water levels.

With five gates pushing water into the St. Marys, the total flow is 96,000 cubic feet per second, engineers said.

It would take 480,000 cubic feet per second over a period of a month to raise Lakes Michigan and Huron one foot, or up to last year's levels, they said.

Revenues Up On Big Bridge

ST. IGNACE (AP) — The Mackinac Bridge Authority today reported records revenues in July, up 6.6 per cent from the same month last year.

July traffic was 258,466 vehicles, up 6.3 per cent from July, 1963, but fewer than the number crossing in the same month of 1958 and 1959, said bridge authority chairman Prentiss M. Brown.

Compared with last year, revenues and traffic increased, respectively, 7 per cent and 7.3 per cent for the first seven months of 1964, he said.

In This Corner

with Ray Crandall

The speaker at this evening's kickoff dinner for the Michigan American Legion baseball tournament in Menominee will be Danny Letwiler, Michigan State University baseball coach and former major leaguer. The one-time outfielder for the Cincinnati Reds, Philadelphia Phillies and Boston Braves played in one World Series and an All-Star game.

Battle Creek will carry an extremely impressive record into the state Legion tournament. Battle Creek has won 27 straight games this season and captured the Zone Two championship by defeating Adrian, defending state champion. Battle Creek will meet Bay City in a first round game at 9:30 Friday morning.

Veteran pitcher Johnny Vencato came up with a no-hitter in Copper Country softball district tournament action this week, blanking Rudy's Bar 4-0. It was the second no-hitter in that tourney, the first being authorized by Ken Michaud of Al's Bar last weekend.

District tournament competition in Class D at Crystal Falls had barely got under way before a wild rhubarb resulted in a forfeited game. Iron River VFW had three players ejected from the game against Crystal Falls Red & Tom's and was forced to forfeit. Also marring the tourney was the death of a fan, Ronald Toti, 35, of Iron River who became ill during the tournament and passed away in the Crystal Falls Municipal hospital the following morning.

After firing a 38 on his first round in the Escanaba Country Club men's twilight league matches Tuesday, Bill Eis Sr. came back with a sub-par 35 on his second nine. He birdied four of the nine holes.

When Mead No. 1 enters the Upper Peninsula Class A championship softball tournament at Crystal Falls on Aug. 28, the Papey Makers' first foe will be the top team from the Copper Country district. Another first round game on Aug. 28 will match the two top teams from Marquette and Iron Mountain districts. The tournament will be staged at the beautiful Runkle Lake Park, just east of Crystal Falls.

Russell Laurin, head football coach last fall, will add the duties of head basketball coach this year at Lake Linden High School. Laurin, a 1962 graduate of Northern, also will assist John Mishica in the track program.

R. Ira Rebella of Ontonagon, another Northern graduate, has been named coach of the high school at Suring, Wis., near Green Bay. Rebella earned his masters in physical education at Kent State University in Ohio.

Ron Shouquist of Stambaugh, the 1963 and 1964 Upper Peninsula prep singles champion, captured the junior tennis crown in the Iron County invitational tournament recently. His brother, Chuck, won the senior division title by defeating Brad Johnson of Marquette. Chuck is a member of the net squad at Northern.

Mrs. Linda Uren of Iron Mountain won the Upper Peninsula women's golf championship here last month on her first try. The former Linda Channing, an Iron Mountain native, is a 1963 graduate of Michigan State University.

Mays Defends Dark With Two Homeruns

By The Associated Press

"I shouldn't be playing," said Willie Mays. "I'm doing it only to help the manager."

It's a cinch Willie wasn't doing it for the New York Mets. The San Francisco Giants' star center fielder showed up at Shea Stadium Wednesday night nursing a heavy cold and when Manager Alvin Dark made out his line-up, Mays wasn't in it.

But five minutes before game time Willie decided to play. The Say-Hey Kid then clouted two home runs — his 30th and 31st of the season — and the Giants coasted to a 4-1 victory over the Mets.

"These guys are trying to get Dark fired," Mays said. "I've got to help the man." Mays came to his manager's defense the best way he knew how — with his bat.

Dark's position as manager was reportedly shaky following racial remarks attributed to him which appeared in Long Island newspaper. Dark denied the quotes to reporters Tuesday and then held a club meeting to explain his position to the players Wednesday.

The power show whipped the Mets but didn't help the Giants in the National League pennant race. Despite winning, San Francisco fell two games back of the Philadelphia Phillies, who swept a two-night doubleheader from Boston 4-1 and 2-1. St. Louis topped Chicago 4-2. Milwaukee downed Cincinnati 6-3 and Pittsburgh edged Los Angeles 4-3 in other NL games.

In the American League, Kansas City routed New York 10-1. Detroit defeated Chicago 3-1 in 13 innings. Cleveland blanked Washington 9-0. Minnesota whacked Boston 6-1 and Los Angeles shut out Baltimore 1-0.

The three homers were the first hit by the Giants in Shea Stadium this year.

Ron Herbel went the distance or San Francisco, scattering six hits to win his eighth game.

Richie Allen's leadoff homer in the ninth inning gave the Phillies the second game after sacrifice flies had produced three runs in the opener. Allen tagged reliever Hal Woodeshick's first pitch in the ninth for his 19th homer.

Pinch hitter Cookie Rojas drove in Tony Taylor with the winning run in the seventh inning of the opener. Taylor, who had knocked in the first Phillies' run in the second, tripled and scored on Rojas' sacrifice fly. Philadelphia wrapped it up with two in the eighth.

Bill White's 14th homer, a three-run shot, helped the Cardinals trip the Cubs. Bob Humphreys, who relieved starter Gordon Richardson in the sixth, hurled four innings of shutout ball to preserve the victory.

Eddie Mathews' two-run homer, his 15th of the year, started a five-run Milwaukee spurt in the eighth inning that gave the Braves their victory. Leo Cardenas and Don Pavletich homered for the Reds.

The Dodgers nursed a 3-2 lead into the ninth but Jim Pagliaro's leadoff homer against Ron Perranoski tied it. After Dick Schofield singled, Bob Miller replaced Perranoski and walked Bob Bailey. Roberto Clemente's base hit scored Schofield from second winning it for the Pirates.

State Netters Win Matches

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Michigan doubles team of Kathy Koch and Jocil Janas swept to easy victories in the first two rounds of the 18-and-under girls division in the National Junior Chamber of Commerce tennis tournament Wednesday.

Miss Janas, of Hamtramck, also won second and third round matches in the singles competition, but Miss Koch, of Monroe, was eliminated in the second round 6-2, 6-1 by Marie Sidone of Pebble Beach, Calif.

Miss Janas eliminated Cadella Martinez of Stockton, Calif., 6-4, 6-4, and Cadence Gibson of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., 6-0, 6-1.

The Janas-Koch doubles team whipped Sharen Young and Sandra Irving of Medford, Ore., 6-1, 6-0, and Martha Schey and Bernadette Gebhart of Louisville, Ky., 6-3, 6-1.

More than 400 pounds of steel nails may be used in the construction of a house.

District Softball Tournament Opens

The 1964 district softball tournament begins this evening with three games at Memorial Field diamond.

A field of seven teams will compete in the double elimination tournament that will run through Sunday night.

At stake will be district crowns and the right to advance to the Upper Peninsula championship tournaments that will be held later this month.

Competing in the tourney will be Trenary, Bero Motors, Flat Rock, Mead 3, Skinnys Bar, Hall Insurance and Teamsters.

Winners of the Escanaba district title will advance to the U. P. Class B tourney, the runner-up and third place team will move on to Class C and the fourth place team will qualify for Class D action in the U.P.

Two Escanaba district teams are already set for further tournament competition. Mead No. 1 will represent this district in the U. P. Class A tourney to be held at Crystal Falls Aug. 28, 29, 30.

Hamm-Merchants, winner of the league championship, has gained an automatic berth in the state Class B tournament which will be staged here over the Memorial Day weekend.

Physical Exams For Gridders Set Wednesday

Football physical examinations will be given at the Escanaba Area Public High School Wednesday, Aug. 12.

All candidates for the varsity and jayvee teams are asked to report at 1:30 at the gym.

Players may begin immediately taking care of their insurance at the high school office.

Gladstone To Forfeit Game

The makeup game between Gladstone and Powers-Hermansville in the Waubung League, scheduled for this afternoon, has been cancelled and will be forfeited to Powers-Hermansville, Gladstone officials announced today.

Gladstone is scheduled to host Manistique in Waubung action Sunday afternoon.

Orioles Blanked Second Straight By Los Angeles

By The Associated Press

Dean Chance, who shares his escapades with Bo Belinsky, now has hooked onto a guy to share his shutouts.

Chance usually works alone on the mound but needed a collaborator Wednesday night and found rookie Bob Lee a willing accomplice as the two combined efforts in the Los Angeles' 1-0 shutout over the pennant-hopeful Baltimore Orioles.

It was the Angels second successive shutout against the Orioles, their ninth in the last month and their 18th of the season — tops in the American League. And Chance and Lee have had their hands in an even dozen.

Lee, who got to be a reliever with the Angels because he didn't want to be a reliever with Pittsburgh, now has shared six shutouts with his Angel teammates. He pitched scoreless ball for 23 1-3 innings over a 10-game stretch and lowered his earned run average to a brilliant 1.58.

A 26-year-old right-hander, Lee was in the Pirate farm system until he balked at being a reliever. He became a starter — after taking a cut in salary — and during spring training was sold to the Angels for $25,000.

The defeat didn't cost the Orioles in the pennant chase as all three leading contenders lost for the second night in a row.

The first-place New York Yankees remained one percentage point in front despite a 10-1 beating by Kansas City and the third-place Chicago White Sox stayed a full game off the pace after a 3-1, 13-inning loss to Detroit.

Elsewhere, Harmon Killebrew hit his 38th homer as Minnesota belted Boston 6-1 and Cleveland wallowed Washington 9-0.

Lee allowed only one hit and struck out four over the final three innings after Chance, who got the victory for a 12-5 record, kept the Orioles scoreless for six innings despite allowing eight hits. The Orioles stranded 10 runners, including two each in the second through sixth innings.

The Angels scored the game's only run in the third on Lennie Green's double and a single by Jim Fregosi, tagging rookie Wally Bunker, 12-3, with his first defeat since mid-June.

The A's got the job done against the Yankees with Nelson Mathews hitting a grand slam homer and Rocky Colavito driving in three runs with a 4-for-4 performance, including his 26th homer. Colavito now is hitting .500 against the Yankees in 11 games this season.

Orlando Pena, 9-10, got the victory, allowing the Yankees' lone run on Joe Pepitone's homer in the seventh. Al Downing, 8-4, was the loser.

The Tigers beat the White Sox and Juan Pizarro, 14-6, when Don Wert led off the 13th with a single and Dick McAuliffe followed with his 20th homer. Pizarro, who allowed only seven hits, had previously been touched only for an unearned run.

Tony Oliva and Killebrew hit consecutive homers in the first inning and Bernie Allen connected in the second inning for the Twins and that was more than enough for Camilo Pascual, 11-8 with his first victory since July 11, allowed only three hits, one a homer by Carl Yastrzemski.

Chico Salmon and Leon Wagner hit back to back homers in the fourth inning, powering the Indians to their victory over the Senators. Lee Stange and Gary Bell combined for the shutout, allowing seven hits.

Olympic Boxers Post Victories

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's two members of the 1964 U.S. Olympic boxing team won exhibition matches handily at Cobo Arena Wednesday night in the prelude to a professional card sponsored by the Mayor's Athletic League.

Titanic Buster Mathis of Grand Rapids, who at 285 had a 100-pound weight advantage, won on a technical knockout at 1:26 of the third round over Willie Williamson, Detroit Golden Gloves heavyweight champion.

Ron Harris, a 135-pound Detroit lightweight, won a unanimous decision over Assi Gabriel, 134½, a member of the Ivory Coast Olympic team. Harris scored the maximum points possible over the three-round route.

Kiwanis Gains Tourney Finals In Babe Ruth

Steve Miketinas tossed a one-hitter and fanned three batters as his Kiwanis team whipped Mead 14-0 in the Babe Ruth League baseball tournament Wednesday.

The victory advances Kiwanis to the championship game Saturday at 10 a.m. Teamsters and Insurance meet at 5:30 this evening for the right to face Kiwanis in the finals.

John Way and Greg Johnson each stroked three hits for Kiwanis. The lone hit off Miketinas was a double by Butch LaBay in the first inning.

Fairchild Is Low Scorer

Elaine Fairchild shot a 45 for individual honors in the Highland Golf Club women's league Wednesday. Other low scorers were Carolyn Nelson with 48, Vicky Beck, Gladys Hansen and Doris Costley 51s.

Thigh-Slapping Out In Comedy

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — After a couple of years of frenzied but futile effort to duplicate the success of "The Beverly Hillbillies," the specialists who dream up formats for television series seem to have decided it can't be done. Next season, at least, the new comedy programs are getting as far away as possible from thigh-slapping, country-style humor.

Within this new area of well-tailored, sophisticated, heroes and high-style comedy is ABC's forthcoming "Valentine's Day," which this recent set visitor would classify as a direct descendant from "Burke's Law" and the almost forgotten "Tab Hunter Show," with Mack Sennett as a remote ancestor.

Our hero — Valentine — is a glossy young book editor who has a — hopefully — unending series of funny adventures through his contacts with authors of what somebody in publishing dubbed "non-books" — those written by famous or infamous personalities or their ghost-writers, or by any persons who are not professional writers. The works are always autobiographical, usually spicy.

"Valentine's Day," although right in the 1964-65 season groove, has several distinctions. It was the very last program, to find a place in the upcoming schedules of the three networks.

Gladstone Sends Eight To Debate School At NMU

MARQUETTE — Forty-four Michigan students are attending the third annual high school debate workshop being held at Northern Michigan University.

Purpose of the workshop, which terminates Aug. 14, is to provide practical experience with the 1964-65 high school debate question, "Resolved: that nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization."

Students attending the workshop include:

Gladstone — Keith Apelgren, Dennis Bergman, Alden Bjorklund, Stephen Cowen, Jo Mariani, Donald Pfothenauer, Mark Phillips, Ned F. Vanders, Manistique—Barbara Rogers, Munising — Denis Skoglund.

Church Events

Trinity Episcopal Church will hold their annual picnic at the Conference Center at Little Lake Sunday. All those planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. E. A. Lawin or Mrs. Robert Adams.

August Mattson Post 71 of the American Legion will hold their annual Picnic at the Dutch Mill Sunday, Aug. 9, beginning at noon.

The highlight of the day will be their barbecued chicken which will be available to all Legionnaires and their families. Plenty of food will be on hand and games are scheduled for both children and adults.

State Briefs

HUDSON (AP)—Funeral services are scheduled here Friday for George M. Gahagan, former state legislator who was prominent in harness horse racing. Gahagan died Tuesday at the age of 84 in Indianapolis. He was a native of Hudson, a former editor of "Horseman and Fair World" and other magazines and longtime secretary of the Grand Circuit.

MUSKEGON (AP) — A 75-year-old Muskegon woman was struck and killed by a pickup truck Wednesday while walking on a bridge over the Muskegon River in North Muskegon. She was Mrs. Frances Bouwsma. She was the mother of Rep. Oscar Bouwsma, R-Muskegon. Police said the victim had wandered away from her husband's car while he was in the downtown area.

NILES (AP)—Philip Penna, 19, drowned Wednesday in a gravel pit three miles north of Niles. State police said he apparently had gone swimming there alone.

Comedy Strip On Television This Season

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It's taken quite awhile, but the comic strip is finally coming to network television.

The creators of "Yogi Bear" and "Huckleberry Hound," have now fathered a cartoon feature called "Jonny Quest," which as a new ABC entry will be a combination of humor and adventure. It will depart radically from the usual cartoon approach in that the characters will be humans and drawn with an attention to style and detail reminiscent of the wartime "Terry and the Pirates," but with overtones of "Flash Gordon," "Prince Valiant" and "Tom Swift."

A comic strip actually was tried several seasons back when an animated "Dick Tracy" was seen on some stations, but the new venture is much more sophisticated and elaborate.

ABC will launch the series in a 7:30-8 p.m. Friday spot, now reserved on all networks for programs attractive to small fry.

Joe Barbera who with partner Bill Hanna dreamed up the show, says that because it is expected the children will watch it avidly, there will be no mad scientists or two-headed monsters. Nor will there be shooting and other gory disposition of villains.

All television and radio jumped energetically into coverage of the tense Viet Nam situation. The television networks did what they could to give pictorial emphasis to a story whose principal action was far out of camera range by concentrating on the speech-making by President Johnson and U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson.

All TV networks are prepared to pre-empt regular programming to report new developments. ABC plans a news special tonight, following CBS Wednesday night and NBC's on Tuesday.

Briefly Told

State Police ticketed Robert Babayr, Villa Park, Ill., and Arthur Martin, Winnipeg, Manitoba, speeding, and Delores Hughton, Garden Ave., expired operator license.

A special meeting has been called by the board of Christian education adult Bible classes at First Baptist Church Monday at 7:30 p.m.

Women of St. Alban's Episcopal Church will hold a bake sale at the Ford Garage at 2 p.m., Friday. Tourists are welcome.

Women of the Tuesday group of Indian Lake Golf and Country Club may telephone reservations to 341-2029 for the Aug. 11 meeting.

The third annual family picnic of Carpenters Local 582 and Bricklayers Local 38 will be held Saturday, Aug. 8 at 2 p.m., at the Pines picnic grounds. There will be children's races, games and prizes.

State Police are investigating the theft of a 2-wheel brown trailer with 3-foot rack from M-94 in Hiawatha township. The owner, Gordon Denny, reported it had a flat tire and was left along the road. It was gone when he returned.

Vernon L. VanLanen, 30 of DePere, was ticketed by State Police for violation of the basic speed law after an accident at 12:30 p.m., Tuesday on US-2 N Mueller township. The driver passed another vehicle, while towing a cruiser. His car went out of control, causing the cruiser to roll over atop the car. No one was injured. Officers said gusty winds were blowing.

Carole June Miller, 24, of Milford, was ticketed for making an improper left turn after an accident at 6 p.m., Tuesday on County Road 442 in Thompson township, near Burns' store at Indian Lake. State Police reported Mrs. Miller turned as a car driven by Mrs. Merwyn White, 41, of 733 Cherry St., was passing. The right side of the White car and the front of Miller's were damaged.

Mrs. Harry Davidson attended a 2-day meeting in Menominee of Marquette district officers of the Women's Society of Christian Service. She is district secretary of Christian relations. Workshops and officers training meetings for the eastern half of Upper Michigan were scheduled at Hermansville Sept. 29, Munising, Sept. 30, Newberry Oct. 1 and St. Ignace Oct. 2.

Members of Knights of Columbus Council 2026 are asked to meet at Messier-Broullier Funeral Home at 7 p.m., today (Thursday) to recite the rosary for the late Jack Soukup. Parish liturgical prayers will be recited at 8:15 p.m. Veterans are asked to meet at the funeral home at 9 p.m., to conduct a memorial service.

Many Entertainers Donate Talent For Big Hootennanny

Manistique will be trying something new Saturday, a hootennanny to raise funds for Bay Cliff children's health camp.

It serves a dual purpose of providing entertainment for summer visitors and local residents and if all goes well it is hoped the event will become an annual one.

A variety of entertainment is planned, at the Manistique High School gym and the band shell. An advance ticket sale is being conducted, as no tickets will be sold at the door.

Guests Coming

Guests will include Allison Green, speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives and Mrs. Green, John Vargo, director of Bay Cliff Health Camp and Mrs. Vargo, State Sen. Kent Lundgren and Ray Clevenger, former chairman of the Michigan Securities commission and Democratic candidate for Congress.

The program opens with invocation by Rev. Roy Pitts and presentation of colors by the Lancers drum and bugle corps. Following the national anthem sung by Lawrence Weaver, guests will be introduced and the Lancers will perform.

Entertainment is scheduled from the 10 a.m., opening until midnight by various bands and entertainment groups donating their talent to aid the camp for handicapped children.

Twist, Limbo Contests

The Kenders will play the dance numbers for the twist contest, the Renegades will play at the gym at 11:30 a.m., and the Jenerou group at the bandshell at the same time. The Derwin trio plays at the bandshell at 12:30 and the Jenerous at the gym for the limbo contest. The Renegades play at the gym after the contest.

Also on the program are performances by the Adventurers at the bandshell at 1:30 p.m., the Derwin Trio at the gym at 2 p.m. and a floor show from 3 to 5 p.m., featuring Blaney Park entertainers, Rob Fure of Marquette and Dave Betts of Ypsilanti, folk singers, Karen Johnson, Warren, Ohio, vocalist, and Marilyn Hotaling of Okemos, acrobatic dancer, Cheri Davis of Manistique will present a comic number and square dancing will be available if qualified dancers wish to participate.

VFW Auxiliary Receives Award

At a regular meeting of the VFW Auxiliary, an award to be placed on the flag staff was given for its participation in the convention parade in Muskegon July 19th.

It was announced that the party sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary was a success and a contribution of $50.00 will be given to Bay Cliff Health Camp.

VFW Post 4420 and its Auxiliary decided to hold a picnic August 9th at the Pines picnic grounds. Games and prizes are planned. Members are to bring their own picnic lunch.

Announcement of the 51st National convention to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, on August 21-26, 1964 was made. This will be the 50th Anniversary of the Ladies' Auxiliary and members with 50 years continuous service will be honored. National officers for the 1964-65 year will be elected.

Hostesses were Mesdames William Adams, Melvin Cousineau, Alden McLean and Reginald Glidden. Mrs. Earl Malloch and Mrs. Margaret Bergman won the special award.

City Briefs

Visitors at the Alvin Nelsons, 324 Range St., included Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nelson, Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. William Lilac and daughters, Susan and Jackie and Mrs. Lillian Young from Savannah, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Bradley of Milwaukee visited at the home of Mrs. Bradley's brother, Frank DeMars.

Visitors this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. King are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jackson, and daughter and her guest, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mortimer of Dallas Center, Iowa, and Mrs. Florida Uselton of Phoenix, Ariz. Sunday Closing Hearing Set For Delta Aug. 27

Delta County Board of Supervisors today resolved a request of clergy and other interests for a Sunday store closing law in the county by instructing its Public Affairs Committee to hold a public hearing on the issue at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 27, in the Delta County Building.

Discussion of the issue occupied most of the board's session this morning in the Delta County Building.

A motion to table the request for action at this time drew a protest from the Rev. Erlend Carlson, pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church, who was spokesman for a delegation. He asked that the issue be heard.

The board waived right to notice on the issue and debate followed. It was inconclusive and was resolved by passage of a resolution by Supervisor Harold Vanlerberghe that a public hearing specifically on the issue be held after proper notice to the public.

The Public Affairs Committee of the board, with Frank Stupak of Gladstone as chairman, will hear the issue Aug. 27.

Escanaba Mayor George Ruch declared the issue not one for proper local legislation and said the problem could be resolved by cooperation among store owners.

The board had the same issue before it a year ago and at that time voted to exempt Delta County from provision of the new state law ordering Sunday store closings.

The discussion brought expression from supervisors that the law is a poor one which has been declared poorly conceived and non-enforceable by the prosecutors and sheriffs association of the state, and in need of revision.

Most chain stores appear opposed to the law because of the high cost of overtime staffing, but when there is not uniformity of policy on Sunday closing there is competitive fireworks.

Neighborhood stores don't have to close under the law. It would take a two-thirds vote to order the closing after public notice and hearing.

Claude Bohn offered citizen opinion that the closing would be bad legislation that would deny freedom of choice in the future.

The board voted transfer of $18,000 from the county contingent fund to Pinecrest Medicare Facility at Powers as Delta's share of a $54,000 construction and renovation project there.

Prosecutor Nicholas P. Chapek informed the board that Iron County has filed suit against the Counties of Delta, Menominee and Dickinson for its quarter equity in Pinecrest. Iron pulled out when the former TB sanatorium was converted to a medicare facility and now asks its share of the value of the hospital plant. An appraisal of the property will be made to determine values.

Gas Utility Must Cut Rate

LANSING (AP) — Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. was directed by the Public Service Commission today to cut its rates by $1,725,000 annually.

The commission said cuts in federal income taxes and wholesale gas prices dictated the rate decrease.

Michigan Consolidated serves 900,000 customers in Detroit, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Grand Rapids, Muskegon and nearly 200 over Lower Peninsula communities.

The reduction will be effective with September bills. The commission said the average customer will save $1.63 a year. Commercial and industrial heating customers will save $394,000 yearly.

The commission said Michigan utility rates have now been lowered by $12,143,700 in the wake of the federal tax cut.

Hope Abandoned For Five Men In French Mine

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (AP) — Hope was abandoned today for five men still missing deep in the Mt. Rivel limestone mine.

Mayor Andre Socie told newsmen: "For us Mt. Rivel is now a mount of tragedy."

Three different attempts to reach the missing men from the side and above ended in failure, or were abandoned.

Two small vertical sounding drills continued to pierce the mountain in the hope of finding some trace of a truck containing one of the men entombed by a cave-in 10 days ago. But officials said it was too late to pull anyone out alive.

Fourteen men were buried in the huge underground labyrinth on July 27. Nine were rescued unhurt Tuesday.

Woman Leaves Pets $50,000

AMESBURY, Mass. (AP) — Two dogs and two cats have a trust fund of more than $50,000.

Annie E. Webster, 84, of Amesbury, who died June 8, directed in her will that the bulk of her $68,000 estate, after $14,000 in charitable bequests, should be placed in trust for pets.

The will directed that the dogs and cats be permitted to live the rest of their lives in her home and that they are to be given "a proper burial when they die."

Old Time Finns Plan Festival For Weekend

ROCK — The Annual Finnish Old Timers Festival will be held at the Finn Hall west of Rock on Saturday and Sunday, August 8-9. The festivities will begin at 8 p. m. Saturday with dancing, music furnished by the Seppanen.

On Sunday, dinner will be served at the Hall, starting at 11 a. m. until 1 p. m. Starting at 1 p. m., there will be a program with musical numbers, songs, poems, and greetings from folks who have come from various parts of the country to attend the festival.

Festivities will continue after supper with another program at 8 p. m. followed by dancing to the Seppanen orchestra.

All persons, Finnish, as well as other nationalities are invited to come and visit and enjoy the entertainment.

Police Charging Michigan Couple In Armed Robbery

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Police have charged a young Michigan couple in Tuesday night's abortive robbery of a snack bar whose operator was wounded with a pistol.

Police Chief L. F. Worrell said James Simmons, 18, and Bonita Stinson, 15, both of Waterford, Mich., a suburb of Pontiac, were held on charges of attempted armed robbery, assault with a deadly weapon and larceny of an automobile.

A hearing in City Recorder's Court was scheduled today.

The snack bar operator, Hardy B. Parker, was in satisfactory condition today with a groin wound. He said he was shot as he struggled with Simmons for possession of the weapon.

Chief Worrell said the couple gave statements saying they decided to run away from home last Wednesday after Simmons violated probation for breaking and entering.

Briefly Told

The Badger Bloodmobile collected 117 pints of blood Wednesday, 18 pints short of the 135 pint quota for the day. There were 65 of 97 appointments that were kept. The bloodmobile will be at the Escanaba Area High School until 3 p.m. today.

The Bay de Noc Toastmasters Club will hold its second annual summer gathering for members and their families at Pioneer Trail Park at 6 p.m. Monday. The picnic will be Dutch treat and those planning to attend are asked to contact Lois Peterson, phone ST 6-2540.

Bay College Ends Summer Session

Bay de Noc Community College's summer school students finished classes this morning with the taking of final exams. Most of the students were 1964 high school graduates getting a head start on their college careers.

A normal semester load during the regular academic year is 16 credit hours or four courses. During the eight week accelerated summer session, a student could take a maximum of two courses for eight credit hours.

"Summer sessions are a unique opportunity for the student who wishes to either move ahead more rapidly or go back and review some of his less successful work, without interrupting his regular program," said President Richard Rinehart.

"It also gives those students from the local area who are home from other universities for the summer a chance to combine a summer break with useful study."

Bay College offered courses this summer taught by its regular faculty as well as others taught at the college by the University of Michigan.

Faculty and staff were also involved in counseling, renovation, and planning for fall semester.

Fall semester will begin Sept. 21, with counseling of students to begin Sept. 7 and to continue through the 18th. The college is accepting applications for enrollment throughout August.

Board Fights Hunt For Does

Delta County Board of Supervisors ordered its Conservation Committee to prepare a strong protest to the Michigan Conservation Commission meeting today at Higgins Lake on its proposal for an antlerless deer hunt across the U. P. this fall.

Supervisor Harold Gustafson, Ensign Township, asked the action. He urged that a strongly worded protest be sent on the proposal for the any-deer hunting season this fall, and that long range the commission consult boards of supervisors for local opinion on hunt policies.

Chairman Peder Pedersen of Bay de Noc Township heads the conservation committee, which was to submit a resolution on the issue to the board for approval this afternoon.

Search Still On For Speedboat In Hit-Run

PONTIAC (AP) — A search continued today for the hit-run speedboat which struck and killed a 20-year-old youth on Cass Lake after he disregarded his own safety to save a girl companion.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies recovered the body of Alan I. Ackerly of Keego Harbor in four feet of water at an unlighted swimming area at Dodge Park No. 4.

Ackerly's companion, Sheila 17, of Bloomfield Township, said Ackerly shouted at her to watch out as the speeding inboard bore down on them Monday night. The boat's running lights and a spotlight were aglow.

She said the youth pushed her under the water. Deputies said the boat apparently passed over Miss Brennan but hit Ackerly.

"From what Sheila told me, that wonderful boy saved her life," said the girl's mother, Mrs. James Brennan.

Witnesses said there were four to six persons in the speeding boat. They said it appeared to be brown, with an unusual amount of white trim.

Sheriff's officers sealed off the lake and searched for the craft, believed to be an 18-foot inboard. They checked launching ramps in the area and began a house-to-house search along the lakeshore.

U.S. Bombers Join Forces For Standby

Saigon. A major guerrilla force smashed through the town's defenses. After the fight, 13 defenders were dead, 8 were wounded and 36 were missing.

Reports from the field indicated no special Viet Cong activity today.

The U.S.-supported South Vietnamese forces were on an around-the-clock alert. All routine military air traffic was halted. All leaves except for emergencies were suspended for the 16,300 U.S. servicemen taking part in the guerrilla war against the Viet Cong Communists.

Six U.S. Air Force F102 jet interceptors landed at the big coastal base of Da Nang, 80 miles from the Communist frontier, sources reported. They said five Vietnamese army divisions also were prepared to fight in the area.

Another six American F102's arrived in Saigon Wednesday to defend the capital. The U.S. Embassy issued security precautions to Americans in the form of a "gray alert" after two bomb incidents in Saigon, although neither involved Americans.

U.S. personnel were asked to remain home as much as possible when off duty, to avoid large crowds in the city, to take special precautions in their choice of public transportation and to be on the lookout for explosive devices in vehicles.

However, an embassy spokesman again emphasized that there are no plans for evacuating the 1,900 American civilians in South Viet Nam.

South Viet Nam's premier, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, appealed to the nation to unite in the crisis touched off by North Viet Nam's torpedo-boat attacks on U.S. destroyers and the retaliatory American raids.

"The Communist traitors of the north, obeying orders from Red China, have deliberately set in motion an armed provocation, opening the way for a war of aggression in Southeast Asia of which Viet Nam constitutes the principal objective," Khanh said in a broadcast.
